

RABBITRY/CAVIARY REGISTRATION

The ARBA offers the opportunity to register your rabbitry/caviary with the association for a minimal fee

Only ARBA members are eligible to register their rabbitry/caviary. If you wish your rabbitry/caviary to be registered under more than one name or owner, all owners must be members of this association or join before the rabbitry/caviary registration can be completed. Following is the procedure to register a rabbitry/caviary.

- 1 - Send us your rabbitry/caviary name. (It is suggested you send three choices in case the first and second are already listed as a registered rabbitry/caviary. (25 letter maximum.....25 spaces total counting letters and blank spaces).
- 2 - Submit a $5.00 registration fee. If more than one owner is to be listed on the registration, add $2.00 for each additional owner after the first one.
- 3 - Be sure to list all member's names as they appear on the ARBA files. (Check membership card for accuracy).

 The address of the rabbitry will be listed as the address of the person designated as the 1st Owner.

After registering the rabbitry/caviary, a certificate will be issued with the rabbitry/caviary name and all owners' names. This information is also kept on permanent record at the ARBA office so no other ARBA member can register that rabbitry/caviary name.

It is not necessary to renew your rabbitry/caviary registration each year. However, if any of the owners listed on the certificate should drop their membership in the ARBA, or let it expire due to late payment, the rabbitry/caviary registration will become void. The above procedure would then have to be followed again to reinstate the rabbitry/caviary registration.
